

BOSTON'S 3rd ANNUAL DAY OF INTERFAITH YOUTH SERVICE (DIYS)

To launch Earth Week 2010!
Working together on the environment & homelessness!

Sunday, April 18, 1:00-7:00 pm
*(including opening program and closing celebration at Church on the Hill;
140 Bowdoin St., Boston, and community service work sites in Boston)*

All are welcome: teens, college-age, young adults, children, and adult mentors/chaperones

Come join us for dialogue, service, and social action. Build the "interfaith youth movement" in greater Boston! Bring lunch, and a suggested good will donation of $10 for transportation, food, and supplies (scholarship assistance available.) Be sure to wear work clothes and bring your energy and vision!

The "under 12" children's program will run from 1-3:30pm on the site of the church. Children must be accompanied for the duration by an adult.

For more information, contact ifyi@coopmet.org or eshaps@brandeis.edu or 617-244-3650
Follow us on Facebook! "3rd Annual Boston Day of Interfaith Youth Service"

Register at our Eventbrite site: <http://diys2010.eventbrite.com/>

Sponsored by Cooperative Metropolitan Ministries (CMM) www.coopmet.org and CMM's Interfaith Youth Initiative (IFYI)

Cosponsored by:

Brandeis University Interfaith Chaplaincy & BUILD Fellows Program, Wellesley College Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, Kids4Peace, Interfaith Action, Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC) FaithActs Fellows, Merrimack College Center for Jewish-Christian-Muslim Relations, Mass Interfaith Power & Light, Waltham Ministerial Association, and many others. Affiliated with the national Days of Interfaith Youth Service, launched by Eboo Patel and the Interfaith Youth Core in Chicago, www.ifyc.org